Giving Back to the Community
St. Peter’s Hospital provided $18,373,864 of community benefit activities in Broadwater, Lewis & Clark, Jefferson, Meagher, and Powell counties this past year.

Charity Care program provided $3,108,727 of healthcare at no charge or reduced charge. Assistance is provided when a patient’s assets are not sufficient and family income is between 0 and 200 percent of the Federal Poverty Guidelines.

Subsidized Health Services of $9,212,668
- Emergency and trauma services
- Ambulance support for large events
- Emergency preparedness training
- Dialysis Services
- Hospice
- Women’s and Children’s Services
- Palliative Care
- In-Home Nursing

Community Education provided to 12,341 people through health fairs and community events.
- Large events included For Women Only, Sports Physicals, Heart of the Matter, and Better Living Lectures
- 2,099 students learned First Aid, CPR, Prepared Childbirth, Breastfeeding, Parenting, Baby-sitting, Tobacco Cessation, Diet and Fitness
- 2,338 people had wellness screenings
- 2,557 received flu shots

Continued Development of State-of-the-Art Facilities

Behavioral Health Unit Opened in May
- 24 beds for adult and seniors with acute psychiatric symptoms
- Managed by Horizon Behavioral Health Systems of Texas
- Cost: $1.1 million renovation and equipment

Catheter and Special Procedure Laboratories Opened in June
- Two new Cardiac Catheterization and Special Procedures Laboratories
- Latest equipment and technology
- Doubled St. Peter’s capacity for patient care
- Cost: $3 million

Medical Office Building Opened in January
- Three stories, 80,000-square-feet
- Located across from hospital to improve patient care
- State-of-the-art exam rooms
- Laboratory, digital X-ray, pharmacy, and infusion clinic
- Cost: $15 million

St. Peter’s Regional Economic Impact
- $46 million payroll (with economic multiplier totals more than $200 million)
- 1,021 Employees, 120 Volunteers
- 4,877 Patients
- 141,230 Outpatient Visits
- 21,400 Emergency Room Visits

Recruitment of 10 Physicians and Specialists for the Helena Community
- Aaron Carter, M.D. Emergency Medicine
- Nicole Clark, M.D. Neurology
- Jason Fleichmann, M.D., D.M.D Oral Surgery
- Kerry Ford, M.D. Orthopedic Surgery
- Kris Godlewski, M.D. Cardiology
- Tim Grossman, M.D. Urology
- Joe Murphy, M.D. Anesthesiology
- Diane Nowak, M.D Family Practice/Ob
- Holly Poag, D.O. Emergency Medicine
- William Schoderbek, M.D. Hospitalist

National & State Recognition
- Cleverly and Associates 5-Star Community Value Index
- Most Wired Hospital
- VHA Leadership Award for Clinical Excellence
- Mountain Pacific Quality Health Foundation Quality Improvement Award
- American Hospital Association Community Event Best Practice

Proud to be Tobacco Free Since September 1

www.stpetes.org

WE'RE RIGHT WHERE YOU NEED US